

Agnes Leshner

Board Secretary

Agnes Farkas Leshner has served on the IW Board since 2019. She is a long-time children's advocate in Montgomery County and has worked as a volunteer with Interfaith Works for more than 20 years. Agnes was the director of the Montgomery County Child Welfare system for more than 27 years. She oversaw the more than 200 staff who helped children who were abused and chronically neglected. Since her retirement, she has been volunteering for several nonprofit groups. She is passionate about helping low-income and immigrant families, having been from one herself. She helped form 4Montgomerys Kids, a small nonprofit that pays for activities and other resources that help create a brighter future for abused and neglected children. Additionally, Agnes has earned a Master's degree in psychology.
