

Bobbi Montoya

Board Member

Bobbi Montoya joined Interfaith Works' (IW) Board in October 2022. She first became involved with the organization while serving as the board liaison for the Women in Housing and Finance Foundation. She also led volunteer efforts to support IW's vocational services program and emergency shelter clients. Bobbi's professional experience as a federal financial regulator spans nearly four decades. She has held positions in management, examinations, supervision policy and analysis, and examiner development. In addition to her oversight work in credit risk management, corporate governance, and financial performance, she actively supports diversity, equity, and inclusion initiatives. Bobbi also advocates for the financial empowerment of women and high school students through her involvement in teaching financial literacy concepts, developing curricula, and building connections.
