

Debra Munk

Board Member

Over her 30+ year career with local public school systems, Debra Munk has taught English, as well as served as Dean of Students, Assistant Principal, Principal, Consulting Principal, and High School Director throughout schools in Montgomery and Frederick County. At the time of her retirement in 2017, she was overseeing numerous high schools as a High School Director. Despite retiring, she continues to work as a consultant with the Office of Shared Accountability, overseeing the standard setting of the district's English Language Arts, ESOL, and math assessments. A passionate quilter, she opened her own long arm quilting business, Rock Creek Quilt Designs, in Summer 2020. She is president of the Montgomery County Public Schools Retirees Association. Debra has also earned a doctorate degree in Educational Policy & Administration.
