

Hannah Dibonge

Board Member

Dr. Hannah Dibonge is President/CEO/Administrator of ALTA Healthcare Services, a provider of behavioral health, addiction treatment and home healthcare services. She has amassed almost 25 years of experience in business and leadership, program planning and execution, care-giving and healthcare management, training and development, and educational program outreach. Dr. Dibonge also serves on the Board of Directors for FOADAC, The FOUNDATION for Orphaned, Abandoned, and Disabled African Children. She earned her undergraduate degree from Robert Gordon University, UK, and a doctorate degree in Pharmacy from the Shenandoah University, Virginia. Dr. Dibonge is very committed to providing quality and dependable services for the members of our community.