

Liz Krueger

Director of Homeless Services

Liz joined Interfaith Works in 2012 as a program support staff member at Becky's House and part-time case manager at Women's Center. She went on to serve multiple IW programs as a case manager and eventually as program director on the shelter and supportive housing side of Homeless Services. She is a clinical social worker licensed in both Virginia and Maryland. She earned a Bachelor of Arts from Colorado College, a Master of Social Work from Virginia Commonwealth University, and a Master of Public Health from the Medical College of Virginia. Liz spends her free time raising two bold, adventurous, and social justice-driven daughters with her husband. She loves hiking in Rock Creek Park with her chocolate Lab Scout and is a member of a swim team in Rockville.
