Tazeen Ahmad is the Chief Financial Officer at a bipartisan government relations firm based in Washington D.C. In this role, she manages the firm's financial strategy, financial planning and analysis, financial reports, company audits, compliance, and bank relationships. She has been a lifelong advocate of issues of importance to women and over the years has worked in leadership positions with many nonprofit organizations that serve women and children. In April 2019, with her daughter, Marium, she co-founded Up 2 Us Foundation, a Maryland nonprofit addressing food insecurity in Maryland and Washington, DC. Tazeen was named as one of the Maryland Commission for Women's 100 Maryland Heroines, in August 2020, for her work in distributing food to Covid impacted families. Tazeen has also served as a Commissioner on the Montgomery County Commission for Women and as board chair of Montgomery County's Victims Services Advisory Board. Tazeen has a B.A. from Alfred University in political science and a master's in journalism from the University of Maryland. She lives with her family in Potomac, Maryland.
