

Teri Blandon

Director of Development

Teri Blandon has twenty years of experience in fundraising for nonprofits, including ten years at public broadcaster WETA TV/FM and most recently with PAI, which advocates for international sexual and reproductive health and rights for women, girls, and other vulnerable groups. Teri received her Bachelor of Science in Biology from LeMoyne College in Syracuse, NY, and her Master of Arts in International Relations from Johns Hopkins University. She is a Certified Fundraising Executive (CFRE) and also earned the Grant Professional Certification (GPC). On weekends, Teri provides emotional support for people who are at a low point in their life volunteering as a Hotline/Lifeline Call Specialist for EveryMind. She also hikes, knits, and is a fan of the Washington Nationals.
